My job is to build Goddesses, not girls who just want boys to text back or women who just want to get married before they hit age 40. The Unicorn Delusion deals with the concept of the "basic bitch" a vulgar buzzword that's been overused at this point yet still aptly defines the characteristics of the anti-Spartan.

THE LAST UNICORN by Peter S. Beagle Flyleaf: A Fine and Private Place, Peater Beagle's first book, was written before he was twenty. "A most unusual novel," Virgilia Peterson said in her review, "By a young man who seems to be a genuine nonconformist . . . armed already with the wryness of experience but brave enough still to venture where many of his elders might well fear to tread."
